

2026 TOEFL NOTE

Written by felyxorin

Reference:

<https://d296n67kxwq0ge.cloudfront.net/attachments/10224/assets/originals.pdf?1773668830>

<https://d296n67kxwq0ge.cloudfront.net/attachments/10225/assets/originals.pdf?1773668889>

- Starting email with...

Dear, or Hello,

- End email with

Sincerely, or Kind regards,

-opening and closing

I'm writing to you about BLABLA

Thank you for your time, and I look forward to hearing from you.

--

Tip: Greeting, opening, closing don't really earn points on their own.

Focusing on the body paragraphs.

Case1. Requesting Help or Action

- | (ex1) explain your situation or why you need help
- | (ex2) describe what you specifically need
- | (ex3) make a direct request or propose a next step

Step1: Explain the situation Step2: Describe what we need Step3: Make the request

| Step1 Explain the situation sentences: |

I recently [situation], and I wanted to reach out for your help.
I'm interested in [opportunity], and I'd like to learn more about it.

| Step2 Describe what we need sentences: |

The main challenge I'm facing is BLABLA
Specifically, what I need help with is BLABLA

| Step3 Make the request sentences: |

Would you be available to [specific action]?
I was wondering if you could [specific request].

Additional:

If possible, could we meet on [day] to discuss this?
I'd really appreciate it if you could let me know by [timeframe].

Tip: Keep your requests soft. – The rubric scores politeness

Case2. Giving Feedback and Suggestions

- | (ex1) describe what you enjoyed or your overall experience
- | (ex2) identify a specific issue or area for improvement
- | (ex3) suggest a change or addition.

Step1: Describe the experience

Step2: Identify what worked or what needs improvement

Step3: Suggest an improvement or addition

| Step1 Describe the experience sentences: |

I recently had the chance to [attend/visit/try]..., and I wanted to share my thoughts.

| Step2 Identify what worked or what needs improvement sentences: |

One thing I particularly enjoyed was BLABLA

However, I did notice that BLABLA

| Step3 Suggest an improvement or addition sentences: |

One idea that might help is BLABLA

Case3. Offering Advice or Perspective

- | (ex1) acknowledge their situation or concern
- | (ex2) share your perspective on the options,
| including advantages and disadvantages
- | (ex3) suggest an alternative or a next step.

Step1: Acknowledge their situation Step2: Share your perspective Step3: Suggest alternatives or next steps
--

| Step1 Acknowledge their situation sentences: |

I completely understand your concern about BLABLA

| Step2 Share your perspective sentences: |

In my opinion, [option] would be a good choice because...

| Step3 Suggest alternatives or next steps sentences: |

Have you thought about [alternative]?

Tip: adds specificity!

The prompt won't give you a personal story
— but you can make one up.

Case4. Recruiting, Inviting, or Recommending

- | (ex1) explain what's happening or what you're organizing
- | (ex2) describe what's needed or
| why this person would be a good fit
- | (ex3) invite them to participate or ask for their involvement.

Step1: Explain the initiative

Step2: Describe what's needed or why they're a good fit

Step3: Invite them or call to action

| Step1 Explain the initiative sentences: |

I'm writing to let you know about BLABLA

| Step2 Describe what's needed or why they're a good fit sentences: |

To make this work, we'll need help with BLABLA

| Step3 Invite them or call to action sentences: |

I think this would be a great opportunity, and I'd love for you to be part of it.

Tip: make the opportunity sound appealing — not just the obligation.

Case5. Navigating Disagreement or Constraints

- | (ex1) acknowledge the other person's position or concern
- | (ex2) explain your constraint or reasoning
- | (ex3) propose a compromise or alternative.

Step1: Acknowledge their position

Step2: Explain the constraint

Step3: Propose a compromise or alternative

| Step1 Acknowledge their position sentences: |

I want you to know that I've carefully considered your request.

| Step2 Explain the constraint sentences: |

Unfortunately, [reason] makes it difficult to...

| Step3 Propose a compromise or alternative sentences: |

I'd like to suggest [alternative] as a possible solution.'

Tip: Lead with the fact, not the apology.

In my opinion, [position].

Like [Name], I believe that [paraphrase in your own words].

To build on [Name]'s point,...

for example...

Although [Name]'s perspective is understandable, I would argue that...

In practice, however,...

This matters because...

For instance, in my own experience,...

Not only [X], but also [Y].

① 입장 In my opinion, [position].

② 다른 학생 의견에 연결

Like [Name], I believe that [idea].

또는 To build on [Name]'s point, ...

③ 이유 + 구체적 예시 This matters because...

For example, ...

④ 추가 논점 Not only [X], but also [Y]. – Not only 뒤에 도치

e.g.) Not only does it save time, but it also reduces costs.